Please list below the course name(s) and credits that you plan to take at an ABA-approved U.S. or study abroad program. Courses may not be required courses at USC unless a written waiver is received from the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. You must be a student in good standing to apply to visit another law school. To receive a letter of good standing, please complete the attached form and submit it along with program information and course descriptions to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. You must earn at least a "C" or better, or "pass" for the credits to be transferable. Credits will transfer to the University of South Carolina Joseph F. Rice School of Law on a pass/fail basis. Upon completion of the course(s), it is your responsibility to ensure that the law registrar receives an official transcript by the due date for USC law grades (please see the law registrar for additional information).
